ORDER NO. 21: SETTING TECHNOLOGY AND MARKMAN TUTORIALS

(February 20, 2009)

On December 19, 2008, the Administrative Law Judge issued an amended procedural schedule which reserves April 22, 2009 for technology tutorials, if necessary, prior to the hearing in this Investigation. (See Order No. 16.) The Administrative Law Judge finds that brief technology tutorials will be useful in setting the stage for the hearing. Complainant and Respondents will be permitted 30 minutes per side to present the technology at issue in this Investigation. Legal argument during said presentations will not be permitted.

Furthermore, following the technology tutorials, the Administrative Law Judge will permit the parties to present Markman tutorials providing an overview of claim construction issues with respect to the two patents at issue in this Investigation. Complainant, Respondents, and Staff will be permitted 30 minutes per side to summarize their legal arguments with respect to claim construction.

Said tutorials will occur in Hearing Room B starting at 9:30 a.m. on April 22, 2009.

SO ORDERED.

E. James Gildea
Administrative Law Judge
